

Employment Termination Policy – Meridian Analytics Inc.

Voluntary Resignation

Employees are asked to provide at least two weeks' written notice of resignation. Employees in Director-level roles or above are encouraged to provide four weeks' notice to support a smooth transition.

Involuntary Termination

Involuntary terminations must be reviewed and approved by HR and, for cause-based terminations, by Legal, prior to being communicated to the employee. This ensures consistent application of policy and reduces legal risk.

Final Pay

Final paychecks, including payout of unused accrued vacation as described in the Vacation Policy, are issued no later than the next regular payroll cycle following the termination date, or sooner where required by state law.

Severance

Employees terminated as part of a reduction-in-force (RIF) are eligible for severance pay of two weeks' base salary per year of service, with a minimum of four weeks, contingent on signing a standard separation agreement.

Return of Company Property

All company property, including laptops, access badges, and any physical documents, must be returned on or before the employee's last day. Failure to do so may result in the cost being deducted from final pay where permitted by law.

Exit Interviews

HR conducts an exit interview with all departing employees to gather feedback on their experience and identify any outstanding concerns before their departure.
